Letters to the editor

Dear Sir:
On July 14th 1971 a neighbor sister-in-law's children were in my yard picking on my children. My husband went out and chased them away. Then the mother of the children came on my porch and cursed my husband and used words that can't be mentioned in this letter, because they couldn't print it. Then she went to our good police chief Bob Goodsell and signed a check for $25.00 charging him with assault and battery. Which he never laid a hand on her. We went to court the following Thursday, the judge who is Joe Benvenuti and appointed by the City of Bay St. Louis, found him guilty of assault and fined him $25.00. After paying this fine, we then signed an affidavit against her for trespassing, disturbing the peace, and using obscene language in front of minors. The judge said they could not print it in full, because she was pregnant and let her go without any further punishment. She then came to court September 1st, found her not guilty of trespassing and disturbing the peace. The judge did not hear my witnesses, in fact he refused to call the witnesses. He said he did not want to go through that again. He did take word that she was guilty on one count and fined her $15.00, which he suspended. She did not have to pay anything. When she was the one who caused all the trouble, I then asked Judge Benvenuti, "What trespassing was," He said I would have to get a lawyer to tell me what it was. The end was that my husband had to pay $25.00 to let this woman come on his porch and curse him out. "Now is that justice?"

Mr. & Mrs. Floyd Johnston

Dear Sir:
I would like to take this means of expressing my appreciation to you, Mr. Hall, and to Rev. Perry Neal for the excellent weekly column, entitled "Trumpets in the Morning." This column contains godly wisdom, which far exceeds worldly knowledge. The contents are encouraging and refreshing, a great help to guide and revive us on this Pilgrim Path to our eternal Home. A vast number of people take great pains to see that their physical body receives excellent care and feeding while they are careless and indifferent about the feeding of their soul. We all must have our daily bread to sustain our physical life. If we wish our spiritual life to be in health, we must not neglect our spiritual nourishment. Our soul, likewise, must have The Daily Bread; "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." (Luke 4:4)

Many of us pamper the physical life to an extreme degree and put a low esteem on the spiritual life - thereby becoming victims of "spiritual malnutrition." Suppose we gave our bodies a "Sunday-feeding-only" as many people feed their spiritual lives, once weekly. Wouldn't our physical life cease to function after a diet of this type over an extended period of time? So what of our spiritual life? Is it in good health? What shall it be? Let us gain the whole man, mind, body, and soul.

James Robinson and The Crusade Team. What a glorious, blessed, beautiful experience to see "The Holy Spirit in action! God's divine love penetrating hearts; people being "born-again-spiritually" being transformed by their personal, individual contact with the invisible, But-Oh So Real, Christ and the "Amazing Grace" of God! Such a thrilling, miraculous, personal experience! Such a dramatic, wonderful experience! The Lord Jesus Christ! Truly, His Name Is Wonderful!

"And in that day shall ye say, Praise The Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted." (Isaiah 12:4)

Praise The Lord for the Jesus Movement all over America. These young people know a transcendent event is on the horizon. "Be ye therefore READY," Matt. 24:42-44. Matt. 24:37-41. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. They are calling others to experience God's love, to get into the Ark of Safety, which is Jesus Christ, before the judgments of God, the wrath of a Holy God begin falling on a cursed earth. The King is coming! Until the meeting-Let The Son Shine Within!

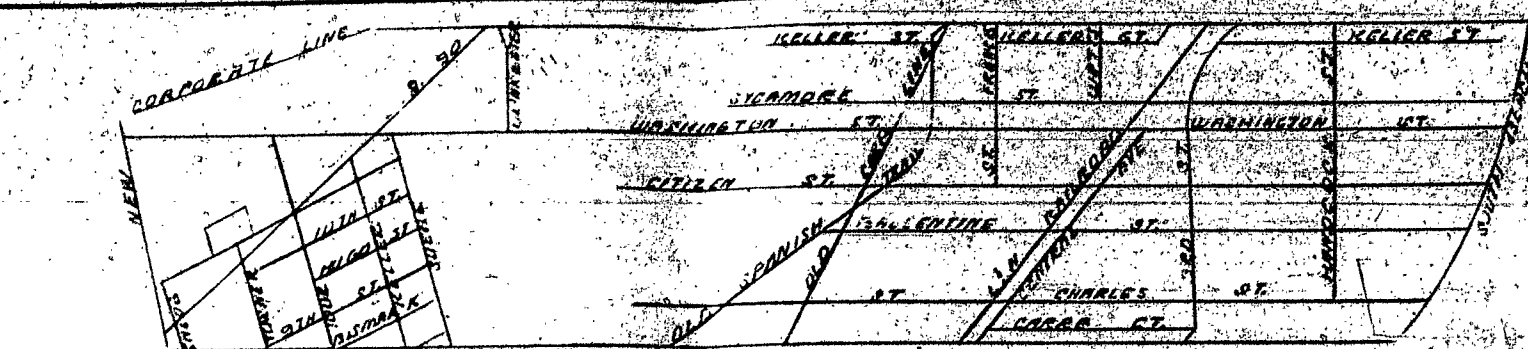

Yours Truly,
Regina Soldino

Local Government In Action

As a service to our readers, Echo staff writer Adoree Shortle has prepared a series of articles explaining in detail the structures of the various departments that operate under the three governmental bodies—Hancock County, Bay St. Louis and Waveland. It is hoped that these articles will enable the public to better understand how each department works to serve the people.

Bay St. Louis Fire Department

Although the Bay St. Louis Fire Department has only three full-time members including the chief, the city is provided with round-the-clock protection, seven days a week.

Fire Chief by the Commission Council in February, 1970. He has a staff of two firemen, Clyde Page and Floyd Page and each of the three men works an eight-hour shift, seven days a week with no days off. The fire chief is paid $550 a month and firemen receive $2 an hour. Since the city does not have a Civil Service program, there is no provision for over-time pay for firemen.

The city supplies badges and uniforms for personnel and a specific uniform is required.

Duties

The fireman on duty must also serve as "desk sergeant" for the department, which is established. Active pastors included those in West Palm Beach, Fla., McAllen and El Paso, Texas, Walnut Ridge, Ark., and Bay St. Louis.

Survivors include his wife, the former Jane Stormont; two sons, Dr. Edward Lindsey, New Orleans, and H. Mc M. Lindsey, Carmichael, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. William Gilcoat Pasadena, Tex.; five grandchildren, two brothers and three sisters. Rev. Lindsey was preceded in death by eight brothers and sisters.

H.C. Ward Sr.

Harry C. Ward, Sr., 80, a resident of 125 State St., Bay St. Louis, died Sept. 1 at 1:25 p.m. in Hancock General Hospital in Bay St. Louis where he had been confined for one day. He had been ill for three months.
Born April 18, 1891, in Newark, N.J., Mr. Ward had resided in Bay St. Louis for 20 years, moving to the Coast from New Orleans.

He was a retired machinist for Jax Brewing Co., New Orleans, and a member of the Machinist Union 463-979 New Orleans.

Mr. Ward was a Catholic, was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Church in Bay St. Louis. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Juanita-Luke Ward, Bay St. Louis; one son, Harry C. Ward, Jr., Hattiesburg; two daughters, Mrs. I.D. (Ruth) Simpson, Baton Rouge; Mrs. D.D. (Harriet) Clifton, Port Arthur, Tex.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
A prayer was held Friday morning at 9:45 at the funeral home, followed at 10 o'clock by a requiem Mass in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Interment was in Cedar Rest Cemetery.

situated in the same building. He monitors the police radio which receives sheriff's department, highway patrol, Civil Defense and police calls for the entire coastal area, as well as remaining in constant communication with the city police. Desk duties also include answering the police department phone, receiving and recording public calls of distress and complaint and dispatching patrolmen on duty.
When a fire call comes in, the fireman calls a patrolman on duty to return to the station, then leaves as rapidly as possible to answer the call. If there is not a patrolman in close proximity, the station is left open, empty and the phones unattended for five to 15 minutes until an authorized person arrives.

The fireman on the night shift to sleep, as in other cities, but with the constant calls coming in, he would have little opportunity if sleeping were permitted.
Firemen receive no recompense for the extra duty, and according to an authoritative source, the city has lost discrepancy points from the Mississippi State Rating Bureau because of this situation.

Training

Bay St. Louis now has a training center established at Valena C. Jones School, under the direction of Asst. Chief Edward Friloux. Continuing courses in fire fighting, fire prevention and equipment usage are conducted weekly by

G.K. Miller Sr.

George Knox Miller Sr., 73, a native of Talladega, Ala., and a resident of Bay St. Louis for the past 13 years, died at 1:05 p.m. Sunday, September 5, in Hancock General Hospital.
Mr. Miller moved to the Coast from Huntsville, Ala., with the Corps of Engineers in 1958 at the start of the Mississippi Test Facility.

A retired electrical engineer with the U.S. Corps of Engineers, he was a graduate of Alabama Polytechnic Institute where he received a degree in engineering. He was a Presbyterian and a veteran of World War I.
Survivors include four sons, George K. Miller, Jr., Houston, Texas; Gibbs Umet Miller, Monticello, Fla.; William Chestnut Miller, Dallas, Texas; and James Ward Miller, Oak Ridge, Tenn.; seven grandchildren, two brothers, Henry Knox Miller, Atlanta, Ga., and Hampton Knox Miller, Auburn, Ala.; and a sister, Mrs. Margaret McCann Alexander, Monticello, Fla.

The body was sent from Riemann's Fahy Funeral Home to Wilkins Funeral Home, Monticello, where services will be held today. Interment will be in Monticello.

W. Perkins Sr.

William Wilson Perkins Sr., 76, of Waveland was pronounced dead at 8:25 a.m. Tuesday, September 7, on arrival at Hancock General Hospital.
Mr. Perkins resided in Hattiesburg prior to moving to Friloux and are open-free-of-charge to the public, as well as fire department personnel.

Volunteers

Regular Fire Department is supplemented by the Bay St. Louis Volunteer Fire Company. James Rutherford serves as chief and Albert Biehl III, assistant chief, of the group which numbers about 15. Although they attend training classes, hold regular meetings as often as possible on an on-hand for every fire call, volunteers receive no pay for their efforts. Their compensation is in serving their community and the group's efforts have been lauded by the chief and city residents.

Equipment

The fire department has one 1967 one-thousand-per-minute Mack Fire Pumper with hoses of varying sizes, nozzles, two self-contained breathing apparatuses (face masks), as well as small fire tools.
The engine is housed in the remains of a building on Ullman Ave., condemned for some time by the state rating bureau. The advent of Camille rendered the building even more structurally unsafe.
The communications desk for the fire and police departments is in the same building on Carroll Ave., also condemned, according to a recent rating bureau inspection team.

New Location

In an effort to rectify this condition, some weeks ago the city council requested approval of the state rating bureau to Waveland six years ago. He was born May 26, 1895, in Standard Community and was a retired boilermaker for Hercules. He was a Baptist and a member of Petal Harvey Missionary Baptist Church in Petal.

Mr. Perkins is survived by a son, William Wilson Perkins Jr., Pearllington; five daughters, Mrs. T.H. (Doris) Simmons, Waveland; Mrs. James C. (Jean) Newell, Hattiesburg; Mrs. Charles (Ella) LeDoux, Kinder, La.; Mrs. Darrell (Dorothy) Schaefer, Mrs. Roseville, G.A. and Mrs. Johnny (Linda) Mobley, Fort Myers, Fla.; 16 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild; six brothers, Johnny Perkins, Hattiesburg; Rayford Perkins, Lumberton; Dan Perkins, Lumberton; Luther Perkins, Clermont Harbor; Francis Perkins, Kiln; and Joseph Perkins, Clermont Harbor; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Martin, Pass Christian; Mrs. Martha J. Farrell, Gulfport; and Mrs. Mandy Cuevas, Dedans Community.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. from Riemann's Fahy Funeral Home with Rev. Perry Neal, pastor, First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in Rest Cemetery.

Police Reports

Local police and sheriff's deputies were kept busy last weekend as increased weather and holiday traffic caused an unusual number of traffic accidents in the Bay St. Louis area. By mid-afternoon Sunday, five accidents had occurred in which five persons were injured.

At approximately 1:45 p.m. Sunday a two-car collision at the intersection of Highway 90 and Second St. in Bay St. Louis resulted in three persons being injured. A 1968 Chevrolet, driven by Elmer Williams of Baton Rouge, proceeding south on the highway, was struck by a 1971 Plymouth, driven by Anthony Getman, of 187 Engman St., Bay St. Louis, as Getman attempted to cross the highway from Second St.

A passenger in the Plymouth was taken to Hancock General Hospital with undiagnosed injuries. As were two of four passengers in the Chevrolet. Sheriff's deputy Fairley Nozice estimated $1000 worth of damage to the Plymouth and the Chevrolet he said was totally destroyed.

Neither driver was cited for traffic violations. Shortly after, two women were injured, neither seriously, in a two-car collision on the Bay Bridge. They were taken to Hancock General Hospital for observation.

At 1:45 p.m. Sunday, Bay St. Louis police investigated an accident at the intersection of Main and Second St. in Waveland. An Oldsmobile station wagon, driven by Gary Woods of Bay St. Louis, collided with a 1968 Impala, driven by Elmer Williams, also of Bay St. Louis. The impact of the collision drove the Oldsmobile into a telephone pole at the intersection. Miss Woods and her sister, a passenger in the car, received facial cuts and abrasions and were taken to Hancock General Hospital. Williams was heavily damaged, and both drivers were given citations to appear in City Court.

Assistant Police Chief Douglas Williams and patrolman Emmett Ellis investigated the accident. According to Police Marshal Fred Bourgoin, there were three traffic accidents reported on the highway in the Waveland area, all of which were handled by state highway patrolmen. Bourgoin said there were no accidents reported within the city by Sunday night.

Bay St. Louis police answered an unusual call Sunday about 3:45 p.m. to rescue a monkey trapped in a tree. The monkey, owned by Mrs. Ogden Kergeson of 321 Carroll Ave., had escaped the house, climbed a tall tree in the yard and got its chain caught in the branches. Aux. patrolman Harold Helme's training with the Western Electric Co. came in handy as he climbed the tree and freed the frightened simian.

Waveland police aided by Hancock sheriff's deputies arrested 37 teenagers Saturday morning following a disturbance on the beach and Coleman Ave. At about 5 a.m. police broke up a gathering on the beach and booked the 15 young adults and two juveniles on disturbing the peace and breaking curfew. All were released on bail.

A Waveland man was involved in an automobile accident Monday. The man was (Continued from Page 1-A.) Increase becomes effective February 1, 1972, employees now receiving $1.90 per hour will have to be raised to $1.80. Total operational cost for the hospital was set at $808,556.

In other action, beat two supervisor Doph Keller made a motion to file an official request of the Mississippi Research and Development Center for a cost analysis survey for the county unit system. The motion was unanimously passed by the board.

Representatives of the Mississippi Council on Aging asked the board for possible use of a county owned school bus to provide transportation for elderly members of the community to medical and other facilities. The bus in question had been used by the Children's Center for Special Education, which is purportedly to be included in the county school system this year.

Mrs. Francis Frankiewicz and a Mrs. Simmons of the welfare department also requested $1,000 from the county in order to receive matching funds from the government for the Senior Citizens program. No definite commitment was given by the board to the request.

DANIEL WEBSTER
September 12, 1845
Justice Joseph Story
Commemorative Address

Defender of the Constitution, Daniel Webster was one of the best-known statesmen and orators in American History.
His fame as an orator was so great that Webster became a part of American legend.
As a statesman, Webster was a champion of the Union, and the Constitution. In years before the War Between the States, the Union was often near the point of breaking up. Webster, more than any other man, held it together.
Daniel Webster, (1782-1852) was truly "The Defender of the Constitution."

Property Owners Urged To Buy Flood Insurance

Property owners in hundreds of Gulf and East Coast communities eligible for federally subsidized flood insurance may face economic ruin if their communities are hit by summer hurricanes and associated floods, the Federal Insurance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, warned today.

Federal Insurance Administrator George K. Bernstein reminded residents in eligible communities that coverage can be purchased through any insurance agent or broker licensed in this state.

Any property owner who has been eligible to purchase flood insurance for more than one year but has failed to do so, or who purchased less than the amount necessary to cover his property up to the available limits, will be ineligible for federal financial disaster assistance to the extent that losses could have been covered by the insurance.

"Many of the communities along the Gulf Coast have been in the flood insurance program for more than one year," Mr. Bernstein said, "and the present threat of loss of disaster relief eligibility in those communities should be a real incentive to those people to purchase insurance."

Expressing "grave concern" over the potential plight of property owners in those areas, Mr. Bernstein warned against officials and property owners dropped off sharply.

Mr. Bernstein urged property owners to take advantage of the flood insurance program, especially in light of the disastrous possible consequences of failing to insure or under-insuring against flood losses.

File Early Encouraged

"The key to prompt payment of social security benefits on retiring is early preparation," says Joseph D. Alfonso, Claims Representative of the Gulfport Social Security Office.

He is now urging early to begin preparation now if you plan to file a claim for social security in the next 12 months," he added.

While processing a claim requires only a short time, sometimes a much longer period is involved in obtaining necessary evidence to support a claim. By beginning early the necessary evidence may be assembled and the last minute frantic effort avoided.

The necessary evidence includes birth records, marriage certificates, divorce decrees, death certificates, and other documents that establish your identity and your relationship to the person for whom you are claiming benefits.

Two Rescued Near Bayou

A Bay St. Louis policeman and the County Civil Defense Director braved heavy winds and rough seas recently to rescue a Bay St. Louis couple whose boat was sinking off Bayou Caddy.

A Mayday call for help on the Civil Defense Citizen's Band radio was received at 11:15 p.m. the night of August 31. The Jourdan Queen, a 24-foot shrimp boat was sinking about a half mile off the mouth of Bayou Caddy. Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Seals, boat owners, had managed to swim to a lighted buoy across the bayou and were stranded there.

The emergency call was relayed through the Delores S. another shrimp boat in the vicinity, and picked up at the Bay fire station by Chief Edgar Linder and Asst. Chief Edward Friloux, who notified local civil defense officials, sheriff's office and Gulfport Coast Guard.

Bay policemen Emmett Ellis, his father and Civil Defense Director Lucien Kidd effected the rescue in Ellis' 24-foot boat under extremely hazardous conditions, according to an eyewitness, who said high winds and heavy seas made navigation in the channel particularly difficult.

The Francis S., another shrimp in the vicinity towed the partially sunken Jourdan Queen onto a sandbar in shallow water.

As manager of the new store, he will direct a staff of 17 in operating the store on a seven-day week basis.

Henry is married and is residing with his family in Carencro temporarily until they can find more permanent accommodations in Opelousas.

Students from Belhaven College in Jackson will conduct discussion groups explaining student activities, the honor code and denominational programming.

After meeting with faculty advisors on Sept. 11, new students will be honored at a

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

The past weekend was a wet one with rain and thunder showers every day. Outside of getting wet plenty bass, perch, speckles, redfish and flounders were caught between the showers. The water in most streams is beautiful and fish are striking like they should. Fly fishing and casting is paying off. Salt water fish are being caught on live and dead shrimp out front along the seawall, hi-way and railroad bridges.

The Labor Day weekend as usual brought folks over from New Orleans and neighboring towns. Fishing, picnicking, sking, crabbing was the order of the long weekend.

Dave and teal duck hunting starts in a couple of weeks. According to those scouting them doves should be plentiful when the first segment opens this month with plenty of weather ahead. The teal duck season is of short duration, only a few days, to be followed by the regular duck season in November. Louisiana doves hunters were afield through Labor Day as the hunting starts earlier in La. than it does in Mississippi. A split duck season in Louisiana will start on Nov. 8 and run through Nov. 28. The second and longer split will be from Saturday 11th to January 11, for a total of 50 days.

Mississippi will have a 50-day duck season, running from Nov. 27 through January 15th.

On the local front, Tut Monte, Kent Monte, Uncle Bud, and Jim George went fishing with the Lang and caught three boxes of fish. Tut said he brought home fish but never wet a line. Monte have a new system. He said they were all amateurs except Capt. Ike.

M.F. Cass of Hattiesburg arrived Labor Day for a week of camping at his camp on Four Dollar Bayou. You can bet there will be some fish caught.

Mel Villere told this one. A good way to keep track of a school of speckles is to catch one. Tie a small rubber balloon on a small string through its mouth and wits. It will follow you and follow it. Sounds plausible, Mel!

Lea Carter, young daughter of Hap Carter, had a thrill the other day. The first time she tried fishing she caught a nice string of bull crockers. Hap still claims that his daughter is the best shrimp in Hancock County. He has a shrimp boat, petition Hap.

James Pair a local basketball coach does a lot of fishing, too. Geo. Hefler said he is going back to fishing after laying off for a while. Nothing better in our way of thinking, George.

Norvin Kelly was telling us of the 19 speckles he and Abe Manheim caught recently at the Rigolets. They weighed 101 pounds. Some fish, I'll say. They are both ardent fishermen.

Nickey Rauxet, Mickey Demoran and Pete Garcia, went fishing at Chandeleur Island last week. They made a nice catch of Spanish Mackerel, Bonita and speared 24 founders.

Richard Call and son Dennis were down from Lerma, Illinois, on vacation. They went fishing and were bragging about the sun perch, blue gills etc. they caught. Were high in their praise of the good fishing on the Gulf Coast.

Carl Emmons, said he used to fish and catch frogs. Carl lives at Waveland. Better start again, partner.

George Adams, a bartender at The Office Lounge, is a fly fisherman and plays golf. He claims to be a Half Fast bartender.

Billie Schmidt, also a bartender at the Imperial Lounge says her favorite sport is fishing. Plenty of places to go around here and there are plenty fish, too.

Harvey Mitchell lives in New Orleans out by Bayou Saint John. Fishes in the Bayou for perch and bass. He has been trying to catch Keep trying, Harvey. He has made mistakes, too.

Jim Bradley works for Bycalog Oil Company. Please for big salt water fish off the rigs. Still loves to catch fresh water fish, perch and bass. Will make that trip, buddy.

Made a trip to Diamondhead up on the Kiln road. Met with A. Shortino manager of the house and Bob, assistant pro. They were in the office. Jimmy was a tourney professional. Bob Cloveto is Head pro. The course is in excellent shape and in full play to members and friends.

Chester Bilbo is one of our younger fishermen. Chester loves to fish and goes on every occasion. Catches his share of fish too.

Roy Wilson has a home near Ted Lyman's lake. Roy was originally from Jackson, Miss. Does quite a bit of fishing.

The Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission announced that they will comply with a request by the Richland Parish Police Jury for a season in the parish. A season of that parish. A season of deer will be held November 30, 1971. The commission also set the trapping season for nutria, beaver, muskrat, otter, raccoon, opossum and skunk to be Dec. 1, 1971 to February 29, 1972. Trapping permits on wildlife management areas may be obtained from district offices.

Had a letter from Fred Lexton from New York who went fishing with John Seaside and myself. He highly praised the fishing on the Gulf Coast. He closed by saying I am deeply indebted to you and John for a fine day on the water and would like to reciprocate if ever you in Upper New York State. Haven't made all of Hancock County, Fred.
